
THIS IS THE CALGARY POLICE SERVICE WITH A PACT MESSAGE FOR OGDEN

The Calgary Police Service is seeking the public's assistance in locating an individual in connection with an attempted break and enter.

On Thursday, September 28, at approximately 2:25 a.m., an unknown culprit attempted to break into an Ogden home located in the 7600 block of 25 Street SE. Residents were at home and asleep at the time.

The culprit tried to gain entry through an unlocked basement bedroom window, at which point the resident awoke. The culprit fled northbound on Odgen Road when confronted by the residents.

The culprit is described as Caucasian male, 25-30 years old, 170 lbs., short brown hair, wearing a short sleeved, button-up shirt, shorts, and basketball shoes.

The Calgary Police Service encourages homeowners to ensure that lower level windows and doors are secure at night and that yards and house exteriors are well lit.

If you have any information about this offence, please call Detective Tom Saigeon at 253-3376, or Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-8477.
